U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York
225 Cadman Plaza East

Re: Martin v. Navient Solutions, LLC et al.; 17-cv-05507 (FB) (PK)
Joint Report concerning mediation

Dear Magistrate Judge Kuo:

All parties in the above-referenced action (“Action”) – Plaintiff Philip A. Martin and Defendants Navient Solutions, LLC (“NSL”), Experian Information Solutions, Inc. (“Experian”), and Trans Union LLC (“Trans Union”) – submit this joint report to advise the Court about the outcome of the parties’ October 11, 2018 mediation session. At mediation, Plaintiff and NSL reached a settlement in principle concerning all claims Plaintiff asserted against NSL in the Action. Once these parties consummate the settlement pursuant to a written agreement, they will (unless the Court orders otherwise) promptly file a stipulation and proposed order to dismiss Plaintiff’s claims against NSL with prejudice.

Although Plaintiff was not able to agree to settlement terms with either Experian or Trans Union, each of these parties believes that the mediation session was productive and intends to continue earnest negotiations with the hope that settlement is possible prior to expending substantial additional time and resources on litigation.<sup>1</sup>

Respectfully submitted,
